

MEET & GREET UNIQUE VENUES BIRMINGHAM

Address of the Venue: Birmingham Repertory Theatre, Centenary Square, Broad Street, Birmingham, B1 2EP

Getting to the venue:

By road:

When you are travelling to The REP from outside Birmingham, follow signs for the City Centre and then the International Convention Centre. If you are using an online route planner or satellite navigation, The REP's postcode is B1 2EP.

Blue Badge Holders:

Parking for Blue Badge holders is available outside Brindley Drive car park (multi-storey at the back of The REP). Parking for Blue Badge holders is also available on Cambridge Street at the rear of the building, but spaces are extremely limited.

Buses:

The REP is situated in central Birmingham and is easily accessible by bus from most areas. Buses that stop on Broad Street directly outside The REP are: (Broad Street) 1, 9, 10, 10H, 22, 23, 24, 29, 29A, 29S, 120, 126, 127, 128, 129, 139, 140, 141, 821 and 829. For further information about buses call the Network West Midlands Journey Planner hotline on 0871 200 22 33.

Trains:

The REP is within walking distance of Birmingham's New Street, Snow Hill and Moor Street stations, which are all within one mile of The REP. Train times are available at the National Rail website or traintimes.org.uk

Parking:

Q-Park Brindleyplace car park is conveniently located just a few minutes away and offers safe and secure parking in addition to a range of convenient services including free umbrella hire, shoe shine machine, baby buggy hire, jump starts and more.

By booking your parking space online at q-park.co.uk you can save up to 40% on the daily parking cost and guarantee your space. REP customers can save an extra 10% by using the promo code REP2018 when you book. In addition, for each booking, Q Park will donate a further 10% to REP First, our million pound campaign.
